Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

I would like to personally express my appreciation on behalf of this office for your help and cooperation in the above-styled case.

I am pleased to inform you that on November 15, 1984, the defendant voluntarily entered a plea of guilty to Lewd and Lascivious. On January 7, 1985, Judge Ben Gordon sentenced the defendant to four years State Prison.

It is important that people such as yourself maintain an interest in the judicial system. Although this case did not reach trial, your role was an important one. With citizen participation and assistance such as yours, we can look forward to a safer society.

If you have any questions concerning this case or your experience with the criminal justice system, please do not hesitate to contact me at 436-5300.

Dear Harry,

I understand that documentation is required before you can have the national office "red flag" a name to prevent someone from becoming registered in the Boy Scouts. At the request of a fellow Scouter, I present the following statement.

The adult male known to me as Eric Griffin or Giffin, former Scoutmaster of the troop sponsored by the Church of Latter Day Saints or Mormon Church in Bedford, Pa. , is in my opinion, unfit to be involved in any manner in the Scouting movement! This is a serious charge and is not lightly made!

In the Fall of 1978 a group of fellow Scouters, hearing that I intended to permit Mr. Griffin to attend Troop 94 scout meetings in an unofficial capacity, related information to me concerning Mr. Griffin's moral character and of some actions taken by him. This alerted me but I considered it as gossip since I was not given any firm evidence. Never the less, I informed our Troop Committee Chairman of it and of my intention to let Mr. Griffin to assist at troop meetings.

Mr. Griffin was informed of the information related to me by someone in the group who was doing the relating and he and I later had a very frank discussion about it. I informed Mr. Griffin that serious charges had been made against him, omitting names and details, and that I considered it gossip. I also stated that if the actions he took while associated with our troop did show the charges were true, things may not go too pleasantly for him, the parents of the boys in our area might react violently!

CONF008796

One evening about 1 - 1½ months later I had to return home for some additional materials for a troop meeting, leaving Mr. Griffin in charge while I did so. Upon my return [REDACTED] who is a member of the troop tried to tell me what went on in my absence and I angrily told him this wasn't the time to do so. I should have listened but it is fortunate I didn't!

As related to me later and since verified by other troop members, Mr. Griffin was using foul vulgar language and was trying to get some of the boys to sniff something from a bottle. He also told [REDACTED] that if I was told what went on our house and car would be blown up. This was one of the charges the adults had told me about but [REDACTED] of course never heard about it so he couldn't have made it up!

I immediately called the oldest Scout in our troop to get verification of this and after much probing he reluctantly told me that Mr. Griffin had visited the boys home (a younger brother is also a troop member) and tried to get the younger brother and a sister to take some sort of drug, the name of which I no longer recall.

These and other incidents caused the temporary loss of some boys and the permanent loss of others plus who knows what mental anguish or damage to some of the kids.

Fortunately, my wife was working that evening and I had to stay home with my children or I may very well have done bodily harm to Mr. Griffin! I did call the District Executive, Mr. Stephens, and informed him of all of this. He has assured me that the "red flag" was up for Mr. Griffin yet other Scouters say it isn't.

CONF008797

DYKES_I_006668

My efforts to give Mr. Griffin the benefit of a doubt resulted in some damage which I regret but I haven't soured on giving others a second chance. I would probably do more in-depth investigating under similar circumstances in the future.

Recently I was told that Mr. Griffin had again become involved in making threats to others and immoral behavior to children. I consented to have my name given to the State Police and am willing to repeat what I have said in this letter under oath. If I could afford the legal costs involved, I would probably have pressed charges against Mr. Griffin myself.

It is evident Mr. Griffin needs some medical help but I can do nothing about that. I can give you this information and hope that you and/or the National office can prevent his getting back into Scouting in any manner!

Sincerely yours,

You wrote to us on September 9 related to your registration in Scouting. Registration in the Scouting program is a privilege which is reserved for those who meet all the requirements and standards necessary for a leader.

We believe that in some of your past experiences there were situations involved which might cause your leadership to be questioned. We shall certainly be happy to discuss this further if you feel there is a need.

Dear Sirs,

Excuse me for writing on lined paper, I would've typed, but I just moved and presently am without a typewriter.

I have work both with cub scouting and with the boy scouting programs. I am an Eagle Scout, an ex-assistant scoutmaster for at least three different troops, and a den father (leader) for a group of cubs ranging from 8 to 10 1/2 years. I have served two years on summer camp staff (junior staff), and a member of the Order of the Arrow. I have even considered in becoming a professional scout.

But, with all these qualifying positions that I have held, I cannot register as an assistant scoutmaster.

I have talked with my district representative, down at Scout Headquarter in Phoenix, and suggested that I should write to you and request a copy of my packet, of my achievements and hopefully the reasons why I can't re-register as an adult leader.

I hope that I might receive this packet, as soon as possible, so that I might correct or try to clean up my record. I hope to hear from you soon.

I would prefer that you would send the packet to my home address (see below), but if it can't be done, please send it to Robert

I appreciate your time and patience with me, and my problems, and pray to God, that we might be able to clear things up.

Sincerely yours,

DYKES_I_006676

Minutes of Troop 727 Committee
Meeting, 26 March 1974
Arnold, Maryland, 21012

Members Attending:

Mr. James Ray

Mr. Elwood Hodgins

Mr. [REDACTED]

Mr. Ray Weinman

1. On 26 March 1974 the full membership of the committee convened to discuss the unusual behavior of the assistant scoutmaster Mr. Eric Griffin, prior and subsequent to his resignation from Troop 727.

2. On Wednesday, 13 February 1974 Mr. Eric Griffin unexpectedly resigned as the assistant scoutmaster. One notice of his resignation was in an unposted letter placed in the mailbox of [REDACTED]. The circumstance of the letter and his curiosity concerning the activities of his son [REDACTED] caused [REDACTED] to question his son more closely regarding events occurring earlier that weekend. The questioning of [REDACTED] brought out the following:

The previous Saturday Mr. E. [REDACTED] arranged for his [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both of whom are members of Troop 727, and himself a visit to Annapolis to purchase photographic supplies. Mr. Eric Griffin told the scouts that he would teach them photography which would lead to a merit badge. Later that day, in his home, Mr. Eric Griffin persuaded the scouts to sign a "contract" to the effect that they would engage in, of their own free will, a business of taking nude photographs of themselves and subsequently to sell them, thereby making much money. At this point, [REDACTED] dropped out of the scheme. [REDACTED] however, motivated by profit, remained "in."

3. [REDACTED] invited Mr. E. Griffin to his home for an explanation. Mr. Griffin admitted to the facts as stated above, said he was sorry but that he was not responsible for his behavior as he was, at the time, under the influence of the devil. Mr. Eric Griffin's admission was prompted by the earlier discovery by the elder Mr. [REDACTED] of his son's scheme and who upon searching Mr. Eric Griffin's room, came upon the photographs of [REDACTED] posed in the nude. He confronted Eric with the photographs; destroyed them; and recommended that he resign from the troop immediately.

4. The Scoutmaster then related the following: He in turn, becoming suspicious upon hearing a number of chance remarks by several of the scouts, telephoned Mr. [REDACTED] several days after also receiving an unposted letter of resignation from one Eric Griffin. He was informed of the situation as noted above. Mr. [REDACTED] then telephoned the elder Mr. Griffin. Mr. R. Griffin confirmed all essential details of the events engaged in by the Assistant Scoutmaster Mr. Eric Griffin and the two young scouts and as has been described herein by Mr. [REDACTED]. The senior Mr. Griffin then offered that the situation as a problem to the community and to scouting might be self solving in that Mr. E. Griffin planned on joining the Air Force sometime within six months to a year; but that until such time, he (Mr. E. Griffin) would refrain from participating in organized scouting activities. The Scoutmaster reminded Mr. R. Griffin that his son planned to apply through the Baltimore Council for summer employment at either Broad Creek or Philmont. Mr. R. Griffin stated that he did not believe this would be a matter of concern. In a followup telephone call several days later to Mr. R. Griffin, Mr. [REDACTED] again voiced his apprehension that Mr. E. Griffin should continue with any relationship in scouting but was undecided as yet what to do concerning it.

5. In addition to the Troop Committee Chairman, Mr. Ray, the Scoutmaster conferred with his District Commissioner Mr. Gary Winch, and with Mr. Jack Lynch, a scouter of long standing and was advised by the latter two to communicate with a Mr. Hawthorne at the Baltimore Council. This was done on two occasions by telephone. He was informed by Mr. Hawthorne that unless the facts were documented and signed by the Scoutmaster and one other involved person, no action could or would be taken to keep Mr. Eric Griffin out of scouting. At this time the matter was held in abeyance by the Scoutmaster pending some further action by the Troop Committee.

6. Mr. Eric Griffin's unusual behavior was further highlighted and brought back into focus by the subsequent events of 22 and 23 March 1974 as related by the Scoutmaster:

At this time, 22-24 March, the Troop was on a campout at Sandy Point State Park. On the night of 22 March sometime between 11:00PM and dawn, Mr. Eric Griffin is strongly believed to have entered the campsite and did the following: festooned the cooking and eating area with streamers of toilet paper; tied shut, the doors of the VW Bus, within which the Scoutmaster was asleep and left a typewritten letter tied to the windshield wiper of the vehicle. The note was shown to the committee and purported to be from a mythical Boys' Club of America and stated that a meeting would be held the following day to honor several of the scouts. The following afternoon, Mr. Eric Griffin drove into the camp area, circled the perimeter road around the campsite and then parked in a field a short distance from the campsite. These activities were brought to the attention of a Park Ranger who happened to be approaching the campsite at this time. The Ranger, with the assistance of a second Ranger summoned by radio, conferred at great length between themselves and with Mr. Eric Griffin and then issued two citations; a warning for unauthorized entry to a restricted area and a citation for driving a vehicle without a current registration. After Mr. Griffin left the park, the Scoutmaster telephoned two of the Troop Committeemen to request assistance in keeping Mr. Griffin from further harrassing the scouts.

7. The meeting was then taken up with the possible courses of action open to the committee and solutions which might prevent continued association between Mr. Eric Griffin and any scouting activities.

8. The following was resolved:

CONF008807

DYKES_I_006678

a. that minutes of this meeting would be prepared, signed by all members present and that a copy with a cover letter be forwarded to the Baltimore Area Council; attention Mr. Hawthorne.

b. that an appropriate number of committeemen with the Chairman, and accompanied by a lawyer-friend-of-scouting call on Mr. R. Griffin as concerned members of the community to discuss Mr. Eric Griffin and his associated activities and to jointly seek alternatives.

c. as a follow-up to the above, to request an appointment with the States Attorney and through his office determine whether the community and/or the Troop Committee has legal basis for some kind of action.
